[Shri Murlidhar Chandrakant Bhandare]

they are sadly mistaken. Action and reaction are equal and opposite. Repressior and hanging of every anti-apartheid activist, rather brutal hanging of Mlungisi Luphondo, will give rise to thousands of anti-apartheid activists to spring up and carry on the battle of Luphondo, as also seen by the recent strike of the miners in South Africa. While the rest of the humanity is engaged in compiling a Code against Apartheid, the Pretorian regime continues to aggressively implement its shameful Code on Apartheid. Regardless of how long it takes to settle the issue and I am confident that the end of apartheid is near and round-the-corner, we shall not submit to the repression of the racial regime in South Africa. I am confident that the sacrifice made by Mlungisi Luphondo will not be in vain and the cause for which he died will be served in the memory of his sacrifice and the pledge we take on this occasion to fight and vanquish apartheid.
